

Spring School

Carla Hyenne

April 4, 2022

Contents

Readings	2
Moving from a circular economy to a circular city, in: Circular Cities: A Revolution in Urban Sustainability, Jo Williams, 2021	2
Circular economy and the city: an urban political economy agenda, Keblowski, W., Lambert, D. & Bassens, D, 2020	2
Exploring circular economies in the built environment from a complex systems perspective, Rios et al., 2022	2
Downscaling the Doughnut to the City, Kate Raworth, 2021	2

Readings

Williams, J. (2021). (1st ed.). Routledge, 8–18. <https://doi.org/10.4324/9780429490613>.

Moving from a circular economy to a circular city, in: Circular Cities: A Revolution in Urban Sustainability, Jo Williams, 2021

-

Circular economy and the city: an urban political economy agenda, Keblowski, W., Lambert, D. & Bassens, D, 2020

-

Exploring circular economies in the built environment from a complex systems perspective, Rios et al., 2022

-

Downscaling the Doughnut to the City, Kate Raworth, 2021

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=YCqGf7T9ABo>Link/URL

-